

APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM (M.ED.)

The M.Ed. and CAGS programs practice “rolling admissions” where admission applications are received throughout the year up to the start of each cohort. Currently we offer one cohort location in Cairo, Egypt.

The program requires a minimum undergraduate cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better. In the event that an individual wishes to apply to the program but does not have a 3.0 GPA, the individual will be evaluated by supporting documentation, which may include but is not limited to: GRE scores (if applicable), last 30 credits of coursework and/or an interview with the program director. Depending on the outcome of the interview and review of all other application materials, the individual may be granted a full or conditional acceptance into the program.

Required materials for admission into the program:

- A completed and signed application (Application can be completed online, however students may need help overriding phone number and social security options.)
- Sealed official transcripts of all previous academic work from a regionally accredited institution. Transcripts from schools outside the United States must receive a course by course credit evaluation through a recognized evaluation service. We accept evaluations from active members associated with the National Association of Credentials Evaluation Services (NACES) organization (www.naces.org).
- Two Letters of recommendation-Letters of recommendation should come from professors under whom the candidate has studied or, when appropriate, from supervisors or colleagues with whom the candidate has worked. Please choose individuals who can provide an objective and frank appraisal of your capacity for graduate study and your potential for professional success. All recommendations need to be signed by the referring individual.
- Personal goal statement or essay - As a graduate degree candidate you must submit a personal goal statement highlighting your desire to pursue an advanced degree and its benefits to you, both personally and professionally. The personal statement should be at least one-page, typed, on a separate sheet and submitted along with the application for graduate admission.
- Official Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or ESL International score for non-native speakers of English. Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) with a minimum TOEFL score of 550 on the paper-based test (PBT), or 80 on the internet-based test (IBT). Prospective students may submit their International English Language Testing System (IETLS) scores in lieu of the TOEFL. The minimum IETLS score for admission is a 6.5. (This should be submitted directly to xcpadmissions@aic.edu)
- Copy of valid passport

Students seeking to enter the program on a non-matriculated basis (taking up to 9 credits prior to full acceptance) will be considered on a case by case basis. Students seeking to enroll in this manner must submit the following documentation to the Office of Graduate Admission for review and approval:

- A completed and signed application (Application can be completed online, however students may need help overriding phone number and social security options.)
- Sealed official transcripts of all previous academic work from a regionally accredited institution. Transcripts from schools outside the United States must receive a course by course credit evaluation through a recognized evaluation service. We accept evaluations from active members associated with the National Association of Credentials Evaluation Services (NACES) organization (www.naces.org).
- Official Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or ESL International score for non-native speakers of English
- Copy of valid passport
